Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1, and 3-26, drawn to controlling the condition of display elements including priming means, classified in class 345, subclass 215.
- II. Claims 2-26, Flicker Control, classified in class 348, subclass 447 and 910.
- III. Claims 27-66, drawn to active matrix wave form generation, classified in class 345, subclass 94.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Group I and Group II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because Group I is drawn to a controlling the condition of display elements including priming means. The subcombination has separate utility such as flicker control as found in Group II.

Inventions Group I and Group III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because Group I is drawn to a controlling the condition of display elements including priming means. The subcombination has separate utility such as active matrix wave form generation as found in Group III.

Inventions Group II and Group III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because Group II is drawn to display flicker control. The subcombination has separate utility such as active matrix wave form generation as found in Group III.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, and therefore require a different search of each group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to William J. Daley, Jr. prior to 3/18/04 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
